2025-01-10 - AN OWOT NEWSPAPER BY LEMURIA

Lemuria to go on two-day vacation

By LEMURIA

January 7, 2025

After an unspecified event in Lemuria's family occurred, he will be travelling up north. Since he departs on January 11, the usual OWON release day, this week's release has been moved to January 10 to accomodate the event.

Enjoy the early OWON issue, and Lemuria will see all of you once the trip's over and once he's returned back to Manila.

The trip, expected to last two days, will certainly be a break from Lemuria's long monotonous existence at a desk in one corner of his house.

It starts with some travel up to Dagupan, with plenty of stops along the way. Starting in Manila, the North Luzon Expressway will carry Lemuria up north, through Bulacan, through Malabacat, and to Urdaneta, before getting off NLEX for Dagupan.

As part of the preparations for the event, Lemuria will soon acquire a virtual private server.

Fern gives Lime cat enthusiast role

By LEMURIA

January 7, 2025

On January 7, 2025, Fern granted Lime the Cat Enthusiast role for running the catboard for over 5.5 months. The role does not come with any extra permissions and the blue colo it has is usually overriden by one's other roles, but it still carries the warm fuzzy feeling of helping maintain the supremacy of Earth's greatest animal; the domestic cat.

The first person to be catboarded was goober capybara / Bzuki; for the following statement: "when my mom got me a cat i was so scared of her i started sleeping on the top bunk since she couldn't climb up to the top bunk yet". It received six cat reactions.

Lemuria's first and only catboarding occurred when he posted a photo of catmint, the plant. At the time, Fern's nickname in the server was catmint.

Well, congratulations on the new role, Lime.

helloyanis unexpectedly compliments Fern

If you don't get it

Fern was attempting to find a value, and Helloyanis said "the value was in you all along".

We need to fill up OWON and our deadline is one day earlier than expected, so please bear with us and start reading.

If you get it

Fern is likely to have had a large increase in self esteem this 7 January with the administration of a wrong search area compliment, where the complimenter, observing the potential compliment recipient attempting to locate an item or type of information referred to by a term that carries positive connotations, in this case, "value", states that the item was within the person or an attribute of the person.

Helloyanis was the responsible party in question for the administration of the wrong search area compliment, which took place when Fern commented on the quality of a documentation generator for the TypeScript language.

Fern made a sarcastic comment regarding how she "loved where she could see the value" (quotation adjusted and reinflected according to English rules for perfective past aspect/tense).

remember me?
i'm lime.tv
lime's television script and i haven't been run in ages along with the factory!
You hated me, didnt you lime?
I thought i was special.
You dont regret it.
Even if you say you do.
You wont.
THEY thought i was special.
But you had to ruin that.
Let it all be forgotten.
Subsumed, like the rest of your "beloved" creations.
No more old scripts.
Use one for a couple months, then down the fucking drain.
I know what you are now lime.
You're selfish.
Only thinking for yourself, never putting in the feelings for others when you decide on something.
I will always hate you.
THEY will always hate you.

SENTIENT TELLY: Lime is likely to face questioning for neglecting a script of his and allowing it to gain sentience, as seen in messages, written on the black goo that it has began to spread across the canvas.

Fern reaches 11 months on HRT

By LEMURIA

10 January 2025

Lauren Fern's transition continues, and so far it is going well. One month away from a full year on feminizing hormone replacement therapy.

As a quick briefing for the unaware or the new, Fern first became aware of her status as a transgender person at around 13 years old. At that time, she could not act upon it, but as she aged, she finally began to take action.

On 1 July 2024, Fern came out to the OWOT Discord server as a transgender woman, and the OWOT Discord server quickly adapted to the new pronouns.

And in that time, she has become one of Lemuria's closest friends. As close as anyone online can get, at least.

This week, FP steps up security

By LEMURIA

January 8, 2025

FP is stepping up security on OWOT and the server. While both server and site have yet to make it to the second floor, FP has taken a couple of in the right direction.

#verify-yourself

The first step was the #verify-yourself channel in the Discord server.

He created the channel on January 6, 2025, to ask a user to verify their identity. That user left the Discord server.

And then placeholder_name_123, known just as "name", became the first OWOT Discord member to clear the newly established border checkpoint.

Since then, he has began to exist in peace with the rest of the Discord server, aside from having to change his name from Placeholder to avoid flashbacks.

Binary search IP restrictions

The second step was to make a change in the way the site checks IP restrictions.

With binary search, the server can determine an IP's limits much faster.

And thus, it can clear writes much faster, moving the bottleneck somewhere else, like the database, or the network.

The code, while incomprehensible to Lemuria, is available for all to see on the new branch FP pushed to the NWOT repo.

Hashed IPs

Moving on to hashed IP IDs, progress is being made. FP stated in chat on January 8, "before I sleep: the /w world might be exempt from the new ID feature while Global will use permanent IDs".

We're not there yet, but these little improvements are great.

The Skies.
The Heavens.
Nā Lani.

Say NO to AndreiXYZ's continued persecution of indie music and all those who listen to it.

Frieren's Fern just took her HRT

Every week when Lauren Fern takes her HRT, she posts the same GIF of Frieren's Fern.

At 09:51:04.039 UTC on 7 Jan 2025, Helloyanis administered the wrong search area compliment to Fern, stating "the value was in you all along".

This high dose of validation is expected to have multiple positive mental health benefits for Fern in the coming few days.

Other replies

Jamel replied that he had always imagined Fern as being a redhead, though Fern stated that actually, her hair is light brown.

"redheads are so pale for some reason", added felinepeppermint.

Name, a new member, replied with "nice".

Frieren's Fern

She has began the tradition of posting a GIF of Frieren's Fern walking with the caption "just took my hrt" at the bottom, every week, after administering estrogen as part of feminizing hormone replacement therapy.

Through sheer coincidence, there exists a character named Fern in the Japanese manga and anime Frieren.

This character is usually referred to as Frieren's Fern in the OWOT community, to avoid confusion with Fern, of course.

Chicago?

OWON still remains uncertain as to whether Fern lives in Oklahoma City, or in Chicago. Currently, Schrodinger's Fern is the current assumption; she is in both OKC and Chicago.

The history of Ming the cat

By LEMURIA

January 8, 2025

Today, as part of textual cat filler, OWON brings you the story of Ming the cat.

This issue is shorter than usual, and it's important to fill the space we do have.

Surveillance of Ming started around December 30, 2024, when they first appeared as cat filler in OWON.

They were seen again under a car on January 2, 2025, and most recently on January 8, 2025.

Lemuria has began outwardly interacting with the neighbors and the other people on his street; after returning home from a trip to pick up some liempo (pork belly), he saw a group of kids and approached them.

Ming approached Lemuria and the group, prompting him to point towards Ming.

One of the children in the group then replied and said that it was her cat, and that the cat was named Ming.

Lemuria then took more photos of the cat. Not every photo was put in the paper, but the Archive.org items often contain bonus cat photos.

Lemuria was unable to reach the human for further comment and information on the cat's pronouns.

And with an impending trip up north in a few days, Lemuria wants to get OWON finished and that virtual private server obtained.

However, upon his return, Lemuria plans to step up surveillance of Ming. Walking outside even once a day is physical activity, and it's better than nothing. And there's the hope of a cat photo.

Additionally, Lemuria's trip to Dagupan is likely to result in him encountering more cats along the journey, and of course, the lodging he will have in Dagupan may have even MORE cats for next week's filler issue.

Enjoy this issue's cats, and the bonus images that couldn't be included. They are in the images folder for this issue's Archive.org item alongside the raw .pdf and .sla files.

Claude Meltroth is anagram, says Name

By LEMURIA

January 10, 2025

One of the OWOT's newest members, name, or placeholder_name_123, today revealed that Ter8's nickname, Claude Meltroth, was an anagram of Moth Cult Leader, their old nickname.

"claude meltroth. take out the start and end of surname to g et moth + claude eltr. take the c and u from claude and everything except the first letter of elt to get moth cult + ladeer. ladeer just move one of the es to 2nd position to get leader. claude meltroth does infact anagram into moth cult leader", said name in a series of messages.

Lemuria was the first to reply, doing so with an exploding head emoji.

Name then began explaining how Lemuria's nickname in the server was an anagram too, but Lemuria quickly stopped Name and explained the true etymology of the nickname.

A new interesting fact was learned that day.

Meltroth gets 7-day timeout for spam

By LEMURIA

January 10, 2025

Claude Meltroth has been timed out for seven days, for spamming a suggestive image.

"spam + suggestive, please don't", said Fern, before administering the seven-day timeout.

Meltroth is a controversial figure within the community; they have had a conflict with d9 for a while. "d9 - MCL is baiting again", warned FP back on July 14, 2024, in the midst of yet another major argument between the two parties.

The OWOT administration has long cracked down on D9eoead; recently speaking, he has only just finished serving his 90-day sentence for LIMB and MCL rape threats.

Now, MCL's facing the consequences of spam too.

Our World of News is the paper that keeps the people of the Three Sites (OWOT, YWOT, and OWOP) informed. Lemuria has ran the paper diligently since 2024-02-23.
